

Wichita Colleges

Notes of Wichita's Educational Institutions.

Friends' University Notes.

The week has been a social one among the students. The sophomores entertained the freshmen at the picnic cottage, and the seniors gave a Halloween party to the juniors at the home of Miss Mable Munnis. This week has found the preparatory students following the example set by the older classes. On Monday evening the second prep gave a class party in the parlor of North hall and on Wednesday the third prep gave a very highly entertained in the South hall parlors.

Mr. Edgar Hawthorth, who was hurt in the football game with Wellington is back in school this week.

On Wednesday at the Y. M. meeting the ladies' quartet, composed of Misses Ely, Baker, Eby and Newton, gave a good rendition of "The Son of God Goes Forth to War."

Mr. Sperry, assistant state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has charge of the association in various colleges, has been in the city during the past week. At the Y. M. meeting on last Sunday he gave one of the finest talks that has ever been addressed to the association, using the "Character of God" as his subject. On Monday he gave a chapel talk taking First Timothy, 4th as his text. He spoke of physical exercise in relation with the spiritual exercise. He said "physical exercise is for this world only, Godliness for this world and the next."

Miss Iva Irenal and Miss Mary E. Ellis of Chicago, a visitor of Mrs. Katherine Irenal, were chapel visitors the past week.

The class in eighteenth century literature have finished Pope's works and are now studying Samuel Johnson.

The Forum promises to have a very prosperous year. The members are especially desirous of making this a strong educational and debating society. They have good material for splendid literary programs, and will make this part of their work the main feature of the society. On Friday last the question for debate was: Resolved, That Canada is justified in her present attitude towards Great Britain. Affirmative, Raymond Woodward, Homer Hickok; negative, Jessie Gidley and May Newton.

Mr. Samuel B. Sperry and wife, formerly Buehler Scholze, both former students of Friends, who were married a couple of weeks ago, have returned from a short visit with Miss Emma Scholze of Arkansas City and are now making their home at the bride's parents. Mr. Sperry has been in attendance at the university for four years. During that time he was one of the best men on the football team and every baseball season found him in his old position of catcher behind the bat. They have many friends in the school and to their warmest congratulations and wishes for a long and prosperous wedded life.

On Thursday evening at Prairie cottage Miss Edna Shaw entertained Misses Ethel Adams and Lenora Tomlinson, Messrs. Burpee, Thompson, Dale Hines and Claude Holmes with an evening at cards. Refreshments were served during the evening, and all enjoyed a very pleasant time.

The Freshman class has been increasing greatly the last few weeks. The students have taken hold of the work with an earnestness that promises rapid improvement. On last Thursday the young ladies were their new suits for the first time.

Fairmount College Notes.

The sophomore class had a picnic Friday evening at the home of Miss Christine Woodcock on Fairmount avenue. Sorority admitted a large number of new members at the last meeting of the society. Those taken in to the society were Letta Stearns, Charlotte Hans, Elsie Nelson, Olive Norton, Cora Leichardt, Jane Parkinson, Eleanor Miller, Mayme Chandler, Ethel Brooks, Kate Lee, Flora Hart, Genevieve Brown.

State Secretary Sperry visited the college Y. M. C. A. during the week. He spent several days conferring with the various members of the association.

The Young Woman's Christian association held the regular initiation meeting Friday morning. Fifteen young women were admitted to the membership of the association on this occasion.

President N. J. Morrison started for Boston and New York on Wednesday. Dr. Morrison is planning an extensive campaign through the Eastern states. He will return to Wichita during the holidays.

President Morrison's classes have been placed under the instruction of Professor A. P. Solandt.

Miss Clough returned on Saturday. She had been called to her home in New Hampshire by the death of her nephew, Robert Lewis. Young Lewis was a student in Fairmount last year. His sudden death was a great shock to all.

Miss Mignon Arnett, who took charge of Miss Clough's classes during her absence, was called to Birmingham, Ala. where her husband, Mr. Eugene Arnett, has been taken ill.

At a mass meeting of the students, held in the college chapel Tuesday morning, W. W. Stahl was chosen manager of the football team for the coming season.

The football game with the Cooper college team last Tuesday proved a hard contest. Fairmount was victorious, this score being 6 to 0. Owing to the wet condition of the field the game was slow and uninteresting in detail.

Tomorrow afternoon, on the Fairmount football the college team will play the Kingfisher aggregation. This team is undoubtedly the strongest team in the territory. It will be a hard contest as the boys from Kingfisher will doubtless make a mighty effort to retrieve their defeat given them three weeks ago.

The Halloween party given by the young ladies of Holyoke cottage was a very enjoyable event. Nearly all the students of the college were present, each wearing a mask and costume appropriate to the occasion. The program of amusements was quite complete and consisted of fortune telling by Professor G. L. Gavett; a "chamber of horrors" conducted by Professor T. H. Sperry, followed by apples, candy throwing, silent reading, music and refreshments in harmony with the event.

A Halloween party was also given by the Phi Theta chi at the home of Gabrielle Humm.

Mr. A. A. Hyde of this city and his cousin, the Hon. Henry Hyde, a banker of West, Miss. visited the college on Thursday. Mr. Hyde is a graduate of Williams college; he was much interested in Fairmount, visiting the library and other leading features of the institution.

of much use in their positions, as they meet a great deal of it in their work. A new roll top desk was added to those already in the office for the use of Professor Price.

Anna Jones, Lulu Foster, Anna Dillon and Tom Devlin did special mimeograph work during the week for the Wichita Automobile company.

Miss Nellie Jackson and Elmer Roll completed the work of the theory department this week.

The boys were invited in, light refreshments were served and they then returned to the college building, where they joined with the party which was doing the decorating for the social. Our band now numbers twenty pieces and is getting down to good solid work.

Wichita Commercial College Notes.
Miss A. Menefee returned to school Monday and will now finish the commercial course.

Mr. Bert Maxwell has been taking the final examination in the commercial department during the past week. He is enjoying it hugely.

Miss Virginia, for of the shorthand department accepted a position as stenographer for Mr. George K. Spencer on Tuesday.

The first college social has been set for Friday evening, November 20, and a large committee of students selected to formulate a program. A large number of new chairs and six new Remington typewriters have been ordered to meet the increased attendance in the shorthand and typewriting departments.

Miss Mary Hummer of the shorthand department has accepted a position as stenographer for the Baker Real Estate company of LeRoy, Kan., and will begin her duties Monday.

It was with deepest regret and profound sorrow for the bereaved father that the sad news of the sudden death of Mr. Roland Stevens came to his many friends in the college. Heartfelt sympathy is hereby extended to the family of the deceased by the faculty and students.

The following old students called during the week: Letta Osborn and friend, Miss Knight, May Winfield, Grace Elfers, Ray Hart, P. L. Wright and Charles McCandless.

Kesko School Notes.
Several former pupils of this school are teaching in Kansas and Oklahoma towns have written that they will be here to attend the Motha concert and remain to resume their studies.

Miss Ina Nichols of Garber had such a very large class this summer and said that it has been necessary for her to take a vacation before returning to study.

Miss Mabel Rapp is again earnestly at work after a long vacation spent in visiting and entertaining company.

Several individual pupils recitals will be given this month by juvenile pupils. One by Bettie Kline. She had never memorized her solo until she came to Mrs. Hays in August. Ella Milner, a little Miss of 8 summers, will also give a recital. The third one, by little folks, will be Master Luan Wright's, a small boy almost 5 years of age.

Miss Jennie McClung went to Conway Springs last Friday, where a class has been organized for her. They are anxious to have her drill in house and steps are being taken to form a club.

She will sing in the M. E. church at Mt. Hope today.

The work of the pupils is proving very satisfactory this fall so far. They are impressed that two qualities are essential to the natural development of their talent; that they shall be industrious and intelligent receptive. Long hours of practice to the exclusion of out door interests and enjoyment are not exacted, but it is expected that a regular amount of time shall be spent in honest concentration and intelligent practice, which will achieve better results than more time spent in indifferent, half-hearted practice. That the pupils memorize all their solos proves beyond a doubt that they practiced with their minds concentrated upon their work.

themes of Nature stud yand peoples' work in saving fruits and vegetables the Heavenly Father has given the rain and sunshine to aid man's work to produce for our needs and pleasure.

The second leads up to the Christmas-tide. The child is so filled with the pleasure of making presents for those he loves that he forgets to ask, "What are you going to give me?" or "What am I going to get?" The third is the mid-winter themes of Nature study and all of the typical trades. The fourth is the Easter and early spring nature and home life studies.

Following are some little observations and remarks:

Little Anna Mahan said "We have too trees at home and they haven't a single leaf. Jack Frost pinched them off."

Jane Taylor said: "Oh, we have a whole barrel of pretty leaves."

At the teacher's regret that she hadn't brought some to the kindergarten she quickly replied: "I couldn't; they are back in Ohio."

Those having entered during the week were Francis Davidson, Hamilton Davidson, Jessie Eleanor Knorr; returned, Reed Conway.

Arrangements have been made by which children who live near the corner of Fourth and Fourteenth streets and Tenth streets can be brought to the kindergarten by one of the assistants. Also from South Main street.

The special event of the week was Frederick Pratt's birthday party on Friday from eleven to twelve. The sixth milestone was reached on Wednesday the fourth, but his mamma kindly considered Miss Shultz's custom of only celebrating such occasions on Friday, so as not to interfere with the regular program plan.

This arrangement was due to Frederick's liking as he forgot there "ever was going to be any Friday." He was a little disappointed, too, that he could not choose every child in the kindergarten to sit at the table with him, as there was only room for a few. Ellis Lockwood, Martling, Esther Evans, Jane Lynch, Jessie Knorr, Katherine Ritchey, Silas Ash-ton and Dorothy Draper received with him. The special guests were Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Ashton, Sidney Ashton, J. Mrs. Woodard and baby, Lucille, Miss Corvath and Mrs. Moulton.

Besides the usual birthday cake, there were choice oranges and bananas, and a cunning little souvenir for every child, given by Frederick.

The friends who have called were: Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Covatt, Mrs. Charles Hochelle, Mrs. Patteyord, Mrs. Ott and little Thelma Wolf.

Mr. J. P. Johnson contributed one dollar toward some much needed material for the children's play-work.

Contributions, donations, subscriptions, gifts, loans, etc., are in order seven days of each week declares Miss C. S. Shultz of the kindergarten.

City Regulator

Makes Suggestions as to How to Build a Wichita.

To the Editor of the Eagle.

Don't knock. The man you are knocking may be just as good, kind and conscientious as you are, but he sees from a different point of view from yourself, and as it is said wise men change their minds but fools never, have a care. For example, I heard a man say that he did not lecture that a certain prominent business man in the city possessed any church going or Christian instincts, for he did not believe he ever attended any church. The next Sunday morning that man came walking down the avenue by my home, his two children and a neighbor's child with him, and when they reached a church, he stopped. Kissed his two children and stood and watched them go into Sunday school. Don't say that gentleman had no Christian instincts.

Again, I heard a man criticize severely the Sunday golf playing. If this is a suitable day for the game and he is not among the first to appear on the grounds and one of the last to leave it is probably he is out of town. He has taken the matter up from a different point of view.

I suggest a man in this town that says that things exist as they are about right. A proposition that a very large number will take issue and yet that man lives a very exemplary life, contributes largely to the support of churches and benevolent enterprises and has a most delightful family of children.

Thousands of readers of the Eagle smile at such a notion, which is called a filthy practice, and yet the chief promoter in the manufacture of the product established a school and contributes largely to its maintenance for freedmen in the south and a member of one of our leading church denominations and is a large contributor to the missionary cause.

A gentleman died in this city who contributed more money than any other man in the city, working hard and hand with the church members in their endeavor to suppress the liquor traffic and yet did not subscribe to their religious beliefs and thought it no wrong in taking his rod and go fishing on Sunday.

Did the great Divine Teacher knock when the men dragged before him a woman who had committed a wrong, neglecting to bring the man also; did he not say "Let him without sin cast the first stone?"

I suggest to the governor that he choose some other season of the year for his militia parade; not the present month when mechanics, railroaders, merchants and everything else busy. I wonder how long his excellency would retain his private secretary and stenographer if they were to announce to him on the morning that he was to take his departure to the militia parade that they were going to lay off ten days and he must get a substitute for that time.

I would pass an ordinance that the occupants of the resident corners should clean the crossings. This idea suggested itself to me when I saw ex-Congressman Barnes out with a sweep shovel last Sunday morning cleaning a crossing in front of his house. If the avenues were paved there would be no muddy crossings.

I would forbid that patrol wagon from being driven along Douglas avenue or Main street and I would take that gang off the wagon. There is no valid reason to be offered why that wagon should be driven down the avenue, the horses on a dead run and the driver walking on the gang.

Since the cool weather and rains we have removed the electric fans and fly brushes and instead have arranged for umbrellas and blankets for the accommodation of horses and the Eagle has been here. When you drive up the highway in attendance is supposed to be your train. Please request him to do so.

P. S.—You are not expected to tip him.

What a lot of good, fresh, crisp advertising Wichita and her premium race track is getting out of the late affair. Please keep it up gentlemen. Someone set a feeder to make an affidavit that he had a Waterbury watch on Crescents and that he made it 1:30 12-16.

Every time you come to an intersection of streets driving in these days of mud the question is, will the team stall in trying to climb over the ward crossing. And when it is dry you must bring your team to a halt or be thrown from three to six inches above your seat just because the streets are not paved. A country town.

"Grafting" is the use of power and position to extort money; it is generated in privilege, patronage and protection. The word "protection" stands for the perversion of the power of public taxation to purposes of private gain.

"Patronage" stands for the distribution of public office for purposes of party politics.

"Privilege" stands for the grant by voters to members of congress of the power of exercising their functions, and as a public trust, but for purposes of patronage and protection.

There is quite a number of shrewd business men in this city which belong to non-residents. There are resident buyers who would buy, build and occupy if they could secure lots but they can not because the price set on the lots is prohibitive. Where agents advise to build because they can get a little bit of commission to handle the rents. It is their property. It is their business to keep it if they want to and it is the assessor's business where such parties place a valuation on their property to assess it accordingly. When a man sells from $10,000 to $20,000 for a piece of property, he means that it is worth that to him and of course expects to pay the taxes on it and not allow the property to go on the roll for what some one else values it at.

It may rain and rain and soak the ground and the mud can get fourteen feet deep, but despite of all that the teams manage to wade through it just as they do in any country town. This town is like the Arkansas river, when it rains more people are employed than any other place in the town. The property belongs to a non-resident who will neither sell it nor improve it, but hold it for advance.

The most unsatisfactory business breeding place in this city, or in the state of Kansas for that matter, is in a block where more people are employed than any other place in the town. The property belongs to a non-resident who will neither sell it nor improve it, but hold it for advance.
